

Flex Investment Account

Our Flex Investment Account is an account that requires a minimum of $500,000 to earn a dividend. It is a short-term investment account with minimum transfers of $500,000 in/out executable on Tuesdays only. If Tuesday is not a business day, members may transfer funds on Wednesday. The Flex Investment Account typically offers higher yields than settlement accounts with a short-term commitment.

- Requires Associate Correspondent Service Level membership with an initial $25 deposit with Corporate Central
- Provides a flexible, short term (seven day) option for earning on your excess liquidity
- The account will remain open and active even when drawn to a zero balance
