

Image Cash Letter

Your credit union receives and processes a large volume of checks each day. You need a system that will combine paper checks received over the counter or from ATM deposits, and check images from remote deposit capture (RDC) transactions into a convenient image deposit file. Our Image Cash Letter (ICL) service provides your credit union with a smart, efficient, and safer way to transmit checks electronically. Through our strategic partnership with the largest image exchange network in the world, we can offer your credit union a solution that helps you mitigate fraud, improve efficiency, and lower overall costs.
